WHAT IS ALL?

The Academy for Lifelong Learning (ALL), established in 2002, is a self-funded, peer-led, membership organization. ALL embraces learning as a lifelong process. As such, members, now numbering more than 300, support the Academy's objectives through their participation as students, as presenters, and generally in the successful operation of the program. In addition to the administrative body, the ALL Advisory Council, and the ALL Curriculum Committee, there are several other committees essential to the total effort. Your involvement in ALL beyond being a student is welcomed and encouraged. Please contact any member of the Advisory Council or Curriculum Committee for additional information. You do not need to be an OSU alumnus or a retiree to be a member of ALL. Periodic socials (coffee/tea) are held throughout the term in the Fireside Room before or after classes for people to get acquainted and share ideas. There will be advance announcements of dates and times.

SPRING 2008

Tuesdays, 9:30 - 11:30 AM unless otherwise noted in the class listing

The Mexican-Origin Population in Oregon: Past and Present

Tuesday, April 1, 9:30

Numbers of Latinos residing in Oregon have increased dramatically during the last decade. Latinos — particularly Mexicans — have been in Oregon since the early twentieth century. Erlinda Gonzales-Berry, OSU Professor Emeritus of Ethnic Studies, explores the rich history of migration and settlement of Mexicans in Oregon, highlighting their sustained practices of community building and contributions to cultural and economic conditions in Oregon.

Host: Ed Heath

U.S. Presidential Election: An Oregon Perspective

Tuesday, April 8, 9:30

Bill Lunch, OSU Professor and Chair of Political Science and the Political Analyst for Oregon Public Broadcasting (OPB), will provide his perspective on the U.S. presidential race, in particular, the potential impact of the Oregon primary in May. The Oregon primary may or may not play a significant role in deciding who will be running in 2008, but Bill will be able to offer some interesting perspectives and commentary on the current and future role of Oregon in this, and future, U.S. presidential elections.

Host: Bill Kemper

Federal Reserve System

Tuesday, April 15, 9:30

Karla Chambers, Co-Owner & Vice President of nearby Stahlbush Island Farms and member of the Board of Directors of the Federal Reserve Bank, San Francisco, will give us an insight into the workings of the FED and a current view of sustainable farming.

Host: Arne Landsberg

The Private Life of Vote By Mail

Tuesdays, April 22, 9:30

What happens to your ballot after you submit it? What effect has "vote by mail" had on voting patterns? How are "questionable" ballots processed? Jill Van Buren, Supervisor of Elections for Benton County, will answer these and other questions you may have about the voting process in Benton County.

Host: Becky McKenzie

Living Well With Chronic Conditions

Tuesdays, April 29, May 6, 13, 20, and 27, 9:30 AM -NOON and June 3, 1:30 - 4:00PM

Charlotte Drost, RN/FNP, will facilitate the Stanford Chronic Disease Self-Management Program. This six-week program is designed to help those with chronic conditions learn how to take control of their health. Classes are fun and interactive, allowing participants to share their successes and build a common source of support. Limited to 18 participants. Workbooks provided free. This set of six classes is presented as a set, and participants should try to attend all six classes.

Host: Becky McKenzie

Pakistan, Al Qaeda, and Nuclear Weapons?

Tuesday, May 27, 1:30

In the past year the stability of Pakistan has seen a dramatic turn for the worse as fundamentalists seem poised to take over the country. What would happen if they did? How closely aligned to Al Qaeda are they? Is Osama bin Laden hiding in Pakistan? And are Pakistan's missiles capable of reaching American targets? A year ago, Mark Croati gave an exciting presentation to ALL. We are pleased he is able to join us again. Mark teaches Middle East Politics at St. Mary's College in Maryland and teaches Global Hot Spots for Georgetown University. He has taught classses at University of Maryland, American University, and The George Washington University.

Host: Jean Peters

Tuesdays, 1:30 - 3:30 PM unless otherwise noted in the class listing

Arabic Spain: 711 A.D. - 1492 A.D. and Beyond

Tuesday, April 1, 1:30

Guy Wood, OSU Professor and Acting Chair of Foreign Languages, will discuss almost eight centuries of direct Arabic influence in the Iberian Peninsula. After a brief historical overview, he will consider the invasion of Spain via the Straits of Gibraltar in 711 A.D., the formation of the Caliphate of Cordoba, the "taifa" states such as Seville, and the last bastion of Arabic influence: Granada. He will include a series of slides that illustrate this history and the lasting cultural impact of Moorish Spain on the Spanish language and the arts today.

Host: David Eiseman

Spanish Art in the Late Medieval and Early Modern Era

Wednesday, April 9, 1:30

Nicole von Germeten, OSU Assistant Professor of History. By the 1600's, the Spanish monarchs had become some of Europe's greatest art collectors and sponsors. Ambitious building projects provided the settings for the thousands of paintings collected by the Spanish kings. She will discuss the various European and regional Iberian influences that formed a distinctly Spanish artistic style, emphasizing the Counter Reformation and Baroque painters

An Expatriot Mom in Barcelona

Tuesday April 15, 1:30

Kim Thackray, Corvallis, will share her experiences living in Barcelona, Spain as a "trailing spouse" and mother of two small children. When her husband, Mark, was asked to work at the Hewlett-Packard site near Barcelona, the family started the adventure of a lifetime. Kim will discuss the delights and challenges of these four-plus years, from visiting the incredible museums to navigating the grocery stores. Photos and mementos will enhance your understanding of this wonderful opportunity.

Host: Lloyd Swanson

Spanish Art Music: The Mystique of Albéniz and De Falla

Thursday, April 24, 9:30

Mike Curtis, musician and composer. The music of Spain has an almost identifiable mystique. The early 20th-century composers Isaac Albéniz and Manuel De Falla were able to capture that fragrant essence in their timeless ballets and works for piano.

Host: David Eiseman

Barcelona and its Architecture at the Turn of the 20th Century

Tuesday, April 29, 1:30

Anuncia Escala, OSU Senior Instructor of Foreign Languages, will offer a brief history of the culture and social movements that led Catalunya and Barcelona to develop its modernist movement in architecture, including Antonio Gaudi and other artists.

Host: David Eiseman

Growing up in Franco's Dictatorship and the Transition to Democracy

Tuesday, May 6, 1:30

Charo Hudspeth, from Spain and a Corvallis resident, will offer a personal account of the 1970s and 80s in Spain, the last Franco decade which initiated the transition to democracy. This inspired an array of challenges that resulted in the transformation from a traditional, Catholic country into a modern western secular society.

Spanish Poet: Garcia Lorca vs. Franco: Spanish Standoff

Roger Weaver, OSU Professor Emeritus of Poetry, asks why lyric poets threaten totalitarian regimes, resulting in their persecutions and (often) deaths. What is it about the lyric which produces this reaction? Roger will offer tentative answers and see how this phenomenon is not unique to Spain.

Host: Keith Dunlap

A Taste of Spain

Wednesday, May 28, 4:00PM-6:00PM

Come and get a sensory flavor of the authentic foods and wines of Spain. Carol Trueba and Linda Ahlvin, Corvallis, will offer us tapas from Spain. Spanish Tortilla and Escalivada are two of several tapas we will try, all served with Spanish red wines. Carol and Linda lived in Barcelona with their families while their spouses were working at HP, and they became connoisseurs of the Spanish lifestyle. They appreciate good food and wine and will share with us their best experiences. Meet at the First Alternative Co-op Community Room, 1007 SE 3rd St. (South Store). There is a $7 per person charge. (Submit Payment with Class Registration) Enrollment is limited to 24.

Host: Lloyd Swanson

Travel in Spain: Highlights and Insights

Wednesday, June 4, 9:30

Mike Curtis returns to discuss his recent trips to various regions of Spain. Through photos, he shares his insights and appreciation of Spanish art, architecture, music, food, and geography.

Host: David Eiseman

Wednesdays, 9:30 - 11:30 AM unless otherwise noted in the class listing

Beethoven's "Missa Solemnis:" A Mass for All Times

Wednesday, April 2, 9:30

Steven Zielke, Director of Choral Studies at OSU and Director of the OSU Chamber Choir, will provide an informative and interactive discussion of Beethoven and his "Missa Solemnis." The lecture will include excerpts which will assist in understanding a long loved, but very difficult work prior to its performance by the Corvallis/OSU Symphony on April 15.

Host: Charles Meierdiercks

Celebrate Architecture!

Wednesday, April 9, 9:30

Friedrich Von Schelling said that architecture is frozen music. Corvallis architect Cy Stadsvold (Renaissance on the Waterfront) using slides and drawing on his own expertise will help us understand and hear that music as we travel through neighborhoods and the world. Host: Charles Meierdiercks

Anticipating Ashland: Three American Classics

Wednesday, April 16, 9:30

This season, the Oregon Shakespeare Festival is presenting three American classics: Thornton Wilder's "Our Town" (1938), Arthur Miller's "A View From The Bridge" (1955), and August Wilson's "Fences" (1985). Robert Leff, director and American Theatre Historian, will discuss each play's historical and theatrical background, how they "speak" to today's audience, when and how a play becomes a classic, and why "Our Town" is one of the great American plays.

Host: Lois Courtney

The Woodwind Quintet: Who, What, Why, and How?

Wednesday, April 23, 9:30

The Spiritoso Woodwind Quintet will play examples of the musical literature for this chamber ensemble and share their experiences as amateur musicians. They will demonstrate how they rehearse and what they have to think about as they play. The members of the Quintet (Gretchen VanderPlas, Steve Ford, Bob Schapper, Karin Magnuson and Sue Borden) are members of the Corvallis Community Band and have played in a variety of musical venues—from tailgaters to pit orchestras. They all play for fun, and look forward to sharing their love of music Host: Lois Courtney

OSU Library Art Tour

Wednesday, April 30, 10:00-11:00

Loretta Riley, OSU Humanities and Social Sciences Librarian and Subject Librarian for Art, will conduct a tour of the highlights of the OSU Valley Library's Northwest Art Collection. The collection includes 120 pieces by contemporary NW artists. Media include oils, acrylics, textiles, sculpture, prints and more. We will meet in the lobby of the library at 10:15 for the 45-minute tour. If you have questions about transportation or parking, please call Erika Schoell at 738-6806.

Host: Erika Schoell

Continued ARTS

Wednesdays, 9:30 - 11:30 AM unless otherwise noted in the class listing

Art of the Arctic

Wednesday, May 7, 9:30

Roben Jack Larrison, Curator of the Jensen Arctic Museum on the Western Oregon University campus and an Alaskan Native, will share her perspective on some of the differences between a Western view of art and the Inupiaq/Arctic view of art. The presentation will include examples from the museum's collection, and photos and videos of artists at work, with examples of their craft. Participants may also elect to work on a small beadwork project during the presentation.

Host: Erika Schoell

The Rhythm of Poetry: Early English Meter

Wednesday, May 14, 9:30

Robert Schwartz, OSU Professor of English and former Department Chair, will consider English prosody at the beginning of Modern English Poetry using examples from canonical early Renaissance verse. In addition to being valuable for its own sake, attention to the craft of rhythm and meter as exemplified by early practitioners enhances our appreciation for and understanding of contemporary poetry. Mary Oliver, one of our most popular modern poets says "What has been written without meter is no more than an icing" and as Miller Williams points out in Patterns of Poetry, ". . . it is all a single growth and the roots are still felt in the branches."

Host: Brookes Spencer

The Music of Johann Sebastian Bach: Highlights of the Oregon Bach Festival Wednesday, May 21, 9:30

David Eiseman, OSU Professor Emeritus of Music, will conclude our three-part series on Bach by emphasizing the St. Matthew Passion and the B Minor Mass, two works featured at this summer's Bach Festival. By concentrating on these masterworks we will continue our consideration of what it is about Bach's music, obscure in its own time, that led it to become universally regarded as among the greatest and most influential in western culture. The Mass will be performed in Portland on June 27 and in Eugene on June 28. The Passion will be performed in Eugene on July 13.

Host: Charles Meierdiercks

Mini-Reviews: Four Unforgettable Fictional Characters

Wednesday, May 28, 9:30

We all remember a character created for us in fiction who came alive, left the page and still exists in our memory. Each reviewer will discuss his/her own choice. They will explore what makes their characters unforgettable and the author who brought them to life.

Host: Glenn Theodore

Scientific Worthies: Albert Einstein

Tuesday, June 3, 9:30

Mary Jo Nye, OSU Professor of History and Horning Professor of the Humanities, will discuss the life, times and contributions of Albert Einstein. Her talk will focus on the new biography, Einstein:

His Life and Universe, by Walter Isaacson.

Host: Brookes Spencer

4. HUMANITIES

Thursdays, 9:30 - 11:30 AM unless otherwise noted in the class listing

Getting a Good Night's Sleep: Sleep Disorders and Sleep Medicine

Thursday, April 3, 9:30

Dr. Mari Goldner, a specialist in the diagnosis and treatment of sleep disorders at the Corvallis Clinic, will review the research establishing the causes of sleepiness and fatigue as well as the conditions in sleep that are damaging to health. She will speak about treatments for apnea, insomnia, narcolepsy, primary snoring, circadian disorders, and the burgeoning field of sleep medicine. The class will focus on scientific and technological developments but will include discussion of the economic, social and cultural implications of sleep medicine.

Host: Doug Clark

Critique of the Supplemental Session of the Oregon Legislature

Thursday, April 10, 9:30

After a trial run at annual sessions, Senator Frank Morse, Republican, representing Albany and Corvallis, and Representative Sara Gelser, Democrat, representing Corvallis and Philomath, will evaluate the Oregon Legislature's "supplemental session" experiment which concluded at the end of February. They will address the issue of whether Oregon is ready to consider annual legislative sessions in place of its biennial system.

Host: Cliff Trow

Oregon Public Broadcasting: What It Is, Will Be And May Not Be

Thursday, April 17, 9:30

Steve Bass, CEO of Oregon Public Broadcasting (OPB), and Lynne Clendenin, Vice President, Radio Broadcasting, will discuss and answer questions about the current programming of the State of Oregon's radio and television broadcasting system; the changes in the content of radio and television that will come about in the digital world; and how technology will alter the forms of message sending and receiving (narrowcasting, cable casting, multi-channels, high definition TV and radio, DVD, satellites and the internet). — truly a Public Information Super Highway, with many access roads.

Host: Dick Weinman

OSU and the Maraschino Cherry

Tuesday, April 22, 1:30

Conventional wisdom credits OSU with the invention of the maraschino cherry. Ron Wrolstad, Distinguished OSU Professor Emeritus of Food Science will discuss whether this is true or false and will describe Ernest Wiegand's role in establishing Oregon's maraschino cherry industry. The contributions of other OSU faculty, including Robert Cain, Darrel Beavers, and Ron, will also be described. Love them or hate them, there's a lot of folklore, technology and science wrapped up in the maraschino cherry!

Host: Lloyd Swanson

Gender and Sexuality: A History

Thursday, May 1, 9:30

Robert Nye, OSU Professor Emeritus of History and Horning Professor of the Humanities, will discuss when and why "gender" first emerged, its relation to "sex" and "sexuality" and how the concept has evolved in recent years. It is presently unclear if we all mean the same thing when we use "gender" in conversation and writing. Host: Cliff Trow

Continued HUMANITIES

Thurdays, 9:30 - 11:30 AM unless otherwise noted in the class listing

MemAerobics Brain Wellness Seminar

Thursday, May 8, 9:30

Roger Anunsen, author, consultant and former attorney, is the creator of MemAerobics, a nationally recognized, non-computer cognitive intervention program that has been educating mature minds since 2001. After an overview of his "Jump Start" theory, he will discuss his Brain Wellness Series, which engages and challenges elders to learn evidence-based neuroscience facts about how aging brains really work and why aging brains sometimes fail.

Host: Barb Callner

Nothing But The BEST

Thursday, May 15, 9:30

Larry Roper, OSU Vice Provost of Student Affairs and Interim Dean of The College of Liberal Arts, has designed and implemented a program to meet the challenges faced by incoming student athletes. Working primarily with football recruits, the program, with the acronym, BEST, assists incoming athletes in overcoming their fears, anxieties, search for identity, and the first-time experience of college academic and social life. ALL participants will get a chance to simulate the activities of the BEST student athletes.

Host: Dick Weinman

Speaking Metaphorically

Thursday, May 22, 9:30

Speaking metaphorically, Dick Weinman and Don Ferguson speak in the language of oral and visual imagery, to express the feelings of Dick about his wife's Alzheimer's Disease. Don, photographer and owner of Shadowsmith Photography, and Dick, OSU Professor Emeritus of Media Communication, describe Alzheimer's shattering effects and individual deterioration, as well as the moods, emotions, yet persistent feelings of hope of the caregiver. Dick writes and speaks in the language of poetry; Don in visual poetry - to interpret the emotional and spiritual meaning of the poems. Both explain how their works were created.

Host: Barb Callner

Humpty-Dumpty Fell... And Just Lay There

Thursday, May 29, 9:30

Paul Hochfeld, MD, Emergency Room physician, and advocate for a new Health Care System, has traveled extensively to produce a documentary on the U.S. Health Care System and structure. He met with health care professionals, administrators. politicians, and government officials. His conclusions are unnerving, but suggestive of action. See excerpts from the documentary and hear how the system is really not about health and is broken like humpty-dumpty. But it might be put back together again.

Host: Dick Weinman

A Visit to the Corvallis Mosque

Wednesday, June 4, 12:30 - 2:30

Amir Mohamed Siala, director of the Salmaan Alfarisi Islamic Center in Corvallis, has invited the members of ALL to his place of worship. He will be our host as we tour the Mosque, observe a service and have our questions answered by members of this Islamic Congregation. Those attending will meet at the Salmaan Alfaisi Islamic Center at 610 NW Kings Blvd. in Corvallis.

Host: Barb Callner

Thursdays, 1:30 - 3:30 PM unless otherwise noted in the class listing

Bird Flight: How, Why and From Whence

Thursday, April 3, 1:30

Doug Warrick, OSU Assistant Professor of Zoology, will guide the class through the basic physics, anatomy, evolution, and ecological significance of bird flight — from hummingbirds to albatrosses.

Host: Skip Wenz

The Known Unknowns of Dam Removal

Thursday, April 10, 1:30

Desiree Tullos, OSU Assistant Professor of Ecological Engineering, will discuss her field studies on the effects of dam removal on Oregon's riparian habitats and aquatic ecosystems.

Host: Skip Wenz

Exploring Your Human Genome

Thursday, April 17 & 24, 1:30

Dr. Kari van Zee, Workshop Instructor for Science Education Partnerships at OSU, will conduct these two class/lab workshops in room 138 of Crop Science Building. First day: after introduction to DNA, you will isolate human genomic DNA from your own cheek cells and then use PCR to explore a small target region. Second day: after discussion of DNA sequencing and genomics, gel electrophoresis will be used to examine and compare the DNA sequences produced in the PCR reactions. You will use standard lab procedures, but no experience is required. Limit: first 24 to register for both days. Car pooling will be organized.

Host: Denis Jarvis

Nanomedicines to Target Solid Tumors

Thursday, May 1, 1:30

John Mata, OSU Assistant Professor of Veterinary Medicine, will discuss the current status and future opportunities of his work with small self-activating peptides which have shown remarkable ability to target cancer cells based on the unique microenvironment present within tumors. His current project has demonstrated the feasibility of developing nanomedicines capable of delivering therapeutic agents to tumors. Although still in its infancy, this work may provide new opportunities for the development of safe and effective therapies for cancer and other medical conditions.

Host: Don Rounds

Dietary Strategies for Prostate Cancer Prevention

Thursday, May 8, 1:30

Emily Ho, OSU Assistant Professor and faculty member in both the Department of Nutrition & Exercise Sciences and in the Linus Pauling Institute, will discuss recent work performed in her lab examining mechanisms by which traditional Asian foods, like soy, tea, and cruciferous vegetables may be protective against prostate cancer.

Host: Don Rounds

Biosolar Hydrogen from Water: A Sustainable Energy Solution

Thursday, May 15, 1:30

Roger Ely, OSU Associate Professor, and PhD students, Liz Burrows, Jed Eberly, and Dick Dickson, Department of Biological & Ecological Engineering, will discuss recent developments in their research into solar-supported production of hydrogen gas by cyanobacteria. A major aim of this research is to develop solid-state biocassettes that could be configured as sheets. These films, or designed layers, for example, could be versatile, portable, efficient, and inexpensive.

Continued SCIENCE

Thursdays, 1:30 - 3:30 PM unless otherwise noted in the class listing

Staphylococcal Resistance: Battlefield to Battlefront

Thursday, May 22, 1:30

David T. Bearden, OSU Associate Professor of Pharmacy, will summarize his recent groundbreaking antibiotic research. Antibacterials have been variably effective in the fight against Staphylococcus aureus. This important pathogen has outwitted most treatment options of the day. While resistance has evolved over the past 60 years, an epidemiologic shift has moved resistant organisms from the hospital to the community. Current research is ongoing into the best treatment and prevention in this new era of infection.

Host: Ron Coffey

The Dark Side of the Universe

Thursday, May 29, 1:30

Albert Stetz, OSU Professor Emeritus of Physics, will explore an exciting new topic of cosmology, which is one of the most active areas in science at this time. It seems that the universe is being torn apart by a mysterious force called dark energy. Most of the actual matter in the universe is in the form of "dark matter," which has never been detected directly. In this talk he will examine the evidence leading to these remarkable conclusions. Host: Ron Coffey

Visit H. J. Edwards Experimental Forest in Cascades

Thursday, June 5, 9:00AM - 5:00PM

October, 2007, Ecosystem scientist, Fred Swanson gave a class on the H. J. Andrews Experimental Forest in the Cascades, the site of intensive studies of old growth forests, streams, landslides and watersheds since 1948. Now, he will conduct a trip to the site itself on a pleasant June day with good company. We shall travel by luxury bus, 2 hours each way, departing promptly from the Church parking lot at 9 AM, and returning by 5 PM. On site the bus will take us place to place, but there will be optional walks for details. Bring a sack lunch for the picnic area. Coffee and chilled water will be supplied. Limit: first 40 to register. Cost $22 (Submit Payment with Class Registration)

Host: Denis Jarvis

ANNOUNCEMENTS

ALL PICNIC:

ALL's Annual Meeting Picnic Dinner will be held Monday, June 2nd, 2008 from 5:00 PM to 7:00 PM at the CH2M Hill Alumni Center. The evening's activities will be dinner, followed by a report of the year's activities and election of new members of the 2008-2009 Council, and ending with OSU Economist Starr McMullen, award winning national fiddler, entertaining us. In order to assure an accurate headcount for dinner, an advance nominal charge to members and spouses is $5.00 each with the remaining cost as a benefit of your membership. Non-alcoholic beverages are included in the cost of the dinner. A no-host bar serving wine and beer will also be available. There will be free parking in the lot south of Reser after 5:00 PM.

COST: $5, SUBMIT PAYMENT WITH CLASS RESERVATION. Deadline May 27th to sign up and pay.

ALL'S FIRST SUMMER SESSION:

We have heard your request for ALL classes in the summer, so this summer we are planning our first summer session. We are keeping this small and will only have a few classes. This is a test to see what the demand will be. They will be from all the strands. The classes will meet on Wednesday morning from 10:00 AM to Noon starting on July 9th, 2008 and ending August 13th. Some of the classes will be at the church and others will be around town. Details, including registration, will be available about the first of May. Check our website, weekly announcements (both email and before class) for these details. This will be a benefit of your current membership and will be offered at no extra charge.

YOUR COPY

Before sending in your registration form, take a moment and either make a copy of it or use this page to note which classes you selected. You will then have a record of your expressed intentions.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

WHERE ARE THE CLASSES HELD?

Most ALL classes meet in the Meeting Room of the First Congregational Church, United Church of Christ. The church is located at 4515 SW West Hills Road, about a mile west of 35th street. The church has ample parking behind the building. Periodically during each term, (coffee/tea) socials are held in the Fireside Room for people to get acquainted and share ideas. Dates and times are announced in advance.

HOW DO I JOIN?

Membership in ALL is $100 per year. While you do not have to be affiliated with OSU in any way or a member of the OSUAA, there is a 5% reduction in the ALL membership fee for those who are members of the OSU Alumni Association. You may attend as few or as many classes as you wish for a full year beginning the term in which you join. (Additional fees are charged for a few classes to cover books, travel, class materials, meals, etc.). If you attended just two out of every three classes offered, each class would cost less than a $1 to attend — What A Deal!!

HOW DO I PAY?

You can pay either by personal check or with a credit card. You can enter the appropriate information in the specified area on the registration form. Your information will be handled with care and without risk of identity theft or misuse of credit card information.

The Spring Term deadline is March 17th. Registrations will be accepted after that date, but limited-size classes fill quickly. Join or register today!

WHAT IS THE CLASS CANCELLATION POLICY?

If weather is questionable, members must evaluate their personal risk in attending classes. It should be noted that in icy conditions, the better approach to the church is from 53rd St. Classes will usually be held unless the Presenter chooses to cancel. If a class must be canceled, ALL will let members know as soon as possible by sending an email notice of cancellation and by placing a cancellation message on the ALL telephone. When in doubt, check your email or dial 737-9405.
